

RADIO TV REPORTS, INC.

4701 WILLARD AVENUE, CHEVY CHASE, MARYLAND 20015 656-4068

FOR PUBLIC AFFAIRS STAFF

PROGRAM NBC Nightly News

STATION WRC-TV
NBC Network

DATE April 26, 1982 7:00 P.M. CITY Washington, D.C.

SUBJECT Inman's Resignation

ROGER MUDD: The White House confirmed today that it has chosen one career intelligence officer, 52-year-old John McMahon, to replace another one, Bobby Ray Inman, as the number two man at the CIA. The appointment of McMahon, currently is the agency's number three man, is designed to allay the fears of intelligence professionals who were dismayed by Inman's resignation.